

A diagram illustrating a parent-child relationship between two components. The parent component, labeled "wallet", is represented by a light blue rectangle with a dashed border. The child component, labeled "LoginScreen", is represented by a smaller light blue rectangle with a solid black border, positioned inside the "wallet" rectangle.

wallet

LoginScreen